

Local Boy Makes Hit as Vocalist

Lloyd Jones, long-time resident of Torrance is currently thrilling dancers at Wilmington Hall, where he appears every Saturday night as featured vocalist with the Bright-Wilson orchestra. Encouraged by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones, 2118 Martina st., Torrance, since childhood Lloyd has developed into a most promising singer.

After graduating from Narbonne high he further studied at Compton J. C. and at La Verne college, meanwhile pursuing his musical career at the Hotel Mayfair in Los Angeles and at many of the larger churches in this area.

Possessing a brilliantly clear tenor voice with both dramatic and lyric appeal, Lloyd is at his best singing today's popular songs that contain a nostalgic lilt of yester-year. Accompanied by the full sixteen piece Bright-Wilson orchestra each of his songs brings prolonged and enthusiastic applause.

John Rauss Took Part in Luzon Attack

Coast Guardsman John R. Rauss, carpenter's mate second class, of 708 Acacia ave., Torrance, and the rest of the Coast Guard crew of an attack transport are putting the Luzon invasion down in their books as the roughest, toughest action they've ever experienced in Pacific combat operations.

"This time they really meant business," said the local Coast Guardsman and his shipmates. "They served us just about everything on the Jap menu. They tried to get us with bombers, warships and submarines. And those little monkey-faces even tried sneaking up in small boats at night and dynamiting anchored ships. But we got there, unloading our troops and cargo and now we're a big step nearer Tokyo."

Carpenter's Mate Rauss told of anxious, nerve-racking days and sleepless nights as a gigantic invasion fleet threaded its way among Jap-held islands in the central Philippines and steamed up through the South China sea to Lingayen Gulf.

"We've had action every day for a week," the Coast Guardsman and the other crewmen related, "and there were times when things got pretty hot. During one aerial attack the Japs scored a direct hit on the transport right next to us. We were luckier; our casualties were light."

Paying tribute to the Coast Guardsman who manned the ship's landing barges, crew members aboard this transport said: "The way those boys threw their boats right through the heaviest Jap mortar barrage they've ever seen made us proud to be in the Coast Guard."

This verse from the Psalms will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Love" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

In reply to a lawyer's question, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus, according to a Bible selection from Luke, told the story of a man who "went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead." A priest and a Levite "came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, . . . came where he was, and bound up his wounds, . . . and brought him to an inn, and took care of him." When Jesus asked the lawyer which of these three was neighbor to the injured man, he answered, "He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "The supremacy of Spirit was the foundation on which Jesus built. His sublime summary points to the religion of Love."

World War II Vets Service Dates Fixed

Revision of the United States Employment Service's definition of a "Veteran of World War II" to conform to the definition contained in the G. I. Bill of Rights was announced today by H. R. Harnish, state manpower director. This means a "Veteran of World War II" is any person who has served in the active service of the armed forces of the United States subsequent to Sept. 16, 1940, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable. The term "armed forces" includes the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Naval Reserve, Coast Guard Reserve (exclusive of Coast Guard Reserve Temporary), National Naval Volunteers, W.A.C., Waves, Spars, and Marine Corps Women's Reserve. Individuals covered by the revised definition will receive full Veterans Services in the United States Employment Service.

Heretofore, interpretation by the U. S. E. S. of "Veterans of World War II" has been any person who served in the armed forces of the United States subsequent to Dec. 7, 1941. The effect of the revision is to include within the definition individuals who were discharged or released prior to Dec. 7, 1941, but subsequent to the operation of the Selective Service Training Act of 1940, and all members of the Coast Guard Reserve except members of the Coast Guard Reserve, temporary.

California ranks highest in any state in veteran placement activities, according to a recent comparison between states, John J. MacGillivray, veteran's employment representative revealed. California U. S. E. S. offices placed 8.5 per cent of the national total, more than any other state. This can be attributed to efficient channelling of veterans through United States Employment Service offices, and is evidence of the cooperation between business and industry with the U. S. E. S., MacGillivray said.

Paying for the War to Be Topic Of Broadcast

"Paying for the War" will be discussed on the air Sunday, Feb. 11, at 11 p. m. PWT, on the "America United" program by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

Dr. Emerson Schmidt, economist of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Boris Shishkin, economist of the American Federation of Labor, and Ed O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, will also take part in the program.

"America United," the NBC Public Service show which recently made its debut on the air, is heard in this vicinity over radio station KFI.
